Point of Care at its Simplest
HbA1c and ACR

The Afinion™ AS100 Analyzer System is designed for point of care testing and is for in vitro diagnostic use only.
The American Diabetes Association (ADA) recommends that someone with diabetes be tested for HbA1c a minimum of two and up to four times per year. Diabetes Control and Complications Trial (DCCT) findings show that people with diabetes who keep their HbA1c levels close to 7% or below have a much better chance of preventing and/or delaying diabetic problems (i.e., heart, nerve, eye and kidney damage).

In addition the ADA also recommends annual screening of ACR in patients with Type 1 diabetes for a duration of ≥ 5 years and all Type 2 diabetes patients, starting at diagnosis and during pregnancy. The National Kidney Foundation (NKF) recommends that screening of diabetes should include measurement of Urinary ACR in a spot urine sample.
